

The Department of Energy will receive $45 billion from the Recovery Act. These funds will go towards transforming the way Americans use energy, building a clean efficient energy supply, reinvigorating the the economy with science and technology, and safely managing and containing nuclear materials.

More information about Department of Energy plans can be found by visiting www.energy.gov/recovery